

Salute to the Services of Retired Police Officers: Cyberabad CP

In a ceremony held today (March 31, 2026) at the Cyberabad Police Commissionerate Auditorium, Cyberabad CP Dr. M. Ramesh grandly honored five retiring police personnel. On this occasion, the CP presented pension documents to the retired staff, honored them with garlands and shawls, and gave them a warm farewell.

Retired Officers:

The following personnel were honored upon their retirement:

- SI K. Yadaiah (Nandigama Police Station)
- SI D. Chandrasekhar (Bachupally Police Station)
- RSI H. Balakishan (CAR Headquarters)
- ARSI P. Vishnu Vardhan Reddy (CAR Headquarters)
- ARHC P. Dharmarao (CAR Headquarters)

The event was attended by their family members and colleagues.

Cyberabad CP Dr. M. Ramesh stated that police service is not just a regular job, but a responsibility carried out with dedication to society.

- Commendable Service: He praised the retiring staff for performing their duties with discipline, honesty, and commitment, thereby bringing a good reputation to the department.
- Valuable Contribution: He noted that their hard work and sacrifices for public safety would always be remembered.
- Family Support: The CP emphasized that the support of family members behind the success of police officers is unforgettable. He extended special thanks to the families who shouldered domestic responsibilities while the officers were on duty.
- Future Wishes: He wished the retirees a healthy and happy life with their families and prayed for their future peace and prosperity.